

CT at Work at the Groton Public Library

Library Book Club

Connecticut at Work

Book Discussion

The Book Club will discuss The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit by Sloan Wilson on Wednesday, November 12, at 7 p.m.

Connecticut at Work Film Series

Please join us for a series of classic films depicting Connecticut residents at work. The program is presented to coincide with the Smithsonian traveling exhibit, The Way We Worked. All of the films will begin at 2 p.m.

Since You Went Away

Friday, November 7

The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit

Friday, November 14

Summer Stock

Friday, November 21

Groton at Work Programs

Full Speed into the Nuclear Age:

An EB Oral History Panel Discussion

November 10 at 7 p.m.

Organizing for Change:

Labor Unions of Electric Boat

November 17 at 7 p.m.

Thames Street:

The Former Business Hub of Groton

December 3 at 7 p.m.

December 17 at 7 p.m.

With Town Historian Jim Streeter

Groton at Work Exhibits

Exhibits featuring Groton at Work will also be available for viewing. These exhibits include photos of Groton businesses from the collection of Town Historian James Streeter and a display created in conjunction with Full Speed into the Nuclear Age: An Electric Boat Oral History. It will include excerpts from the interviews and photos and memorabilia from those who were interviewed. Artwork by students from Claude Chester and Mary Morrisson Schools will also be on display. The exhibits will be on view at the Library through December.

